Brothers and Sisters,

As we enter the holiday season, the entire leadership team wants to express our thanks for your continued commitment to the NYC Carpenters Union. Time and time again, you show what it truly means to be a union carpenter. Whether it's getting up before the sun, putting in long hours, or showing up for Carpenters RISE and union actions week after week, your hard work and heart never go unnoticed.

And being a member here isn't easy. It takes effort, pride, and a willingness to stay engaged through thick and thin, through the ups and downs, through whatever life throws at us. Those are the qualities that define our union family and make us strong. And, the NYC Carpenters Union IS strong, brothers and sisters, and don't let anyone tell you otherwise.

This Thanksgiving, we are especially grateful to each one of you. Leading this union is the honor of our lives, and we don't take that lightly. Thank you for the work you do, the values you carry, and the belief you continue to show in the best union in New York City.

We hope you get a chance to slow down, share a meal, laugh with family and friends, or just enjoy one of your favorite football teams and a little peace and quiet. Whatever the day looks like for you, we hope it brings something to appreciate.

From all of us on the Solidarity Team: Happy Thanksgiving and thank you for everything you do for the NYC Carpenters Union.

Forever at your service,

Paul Capurso,
Executive Secretary-Treasurer

David Caraballoso,
President

Adam Harkin,
Vice President
