Brothers and Sisters,

Today, we recognize Juneteenth, a day that commemorates the end of slavery in the United States and honors the resilience, achievements, and contributions of Black Americans throughout our nation's history.

As union carpenters, we know that our strength comes from solidarity. We believe every worker deserves dignity, respect, and the opportunity to build a better future for themselves and their families.

On this Juneteenth, let us reflect on the progress that has been made, acknowledge the work that remains, and recommit ourselves to the values of unity, inclusion, and opportunity for all.

Thank you,

In solidarity,
